PATTERNS

DOUBLES CROCHES

The image shows eight staves of drum notation, each labeled with a number from 1 to 8 in a small box at the top left. Each staff consists of five horizontal lines representing a snare drum. The notation uses vertical strokes and 'x' marks to indicate different strokes. The patterns involve double strokes (two vertical lines) and single strokes (one vertical line or an 'x'). The patterns are as follows:

- Pattern 1: Double stroke, single stroke, double stroke, single stroke.
- Pattern 2: Double stroke, double stroke, double stroke, double stroke.
- Pattern 3: Single stroke, double stroke, double stroke, double stroke.
- Pattern 4: Double stroke, double stroke, single stroke, double stroke.
- Pattern 5: Double stroke, double stroke, double stroke, double stroke.
- Pattern 6: Double stroke, double stroke, double stroke, double stroke.
- Pattern 7: Double stroke, double stroke, double stroke, double stroke.
- Pattern 8: Double stroke, double stroke, double stroke, double stroke.
